 $100,000 REWARD!

THE MURDERER

Of our late beloved President, Abraham Lincoln,

IS STILL AT LARGE.

$50,000 REWARD

Will be paid by this Department for his apprehension, in addition to any reward offered by Municipal Authorities or State Executives.

$25,000

REWARD

Will be paid for the apprehension of JOHN H. SURRET, one of Booth's Accomplices.

$25,000

REWARD

Will be paid for the apprehension of David C. Harold, another of Booth's accomplices.

LIBERAL REWARDS will be paid for any information that shall conduce to the arrest of either of the above-named criminals, or their accomplices.

All persons harboring or secreting the said persons, or either of them, or aiding or assisting their concealment or escape, will be treated as accomplices in the murder of the President and the attempted assassination of the Secretary of State, and shall be subject to trial before a Military Commission and the punishment of DEATH.

Let the stain of innocent blood be removed from the land by the arrest and punishment of the murderers.

All good citizens are exhorted to aid public justice on this occasion. Every man should consider his own conscience charged with this solemn duty, and rest neither night nor day until it be accomplished.

EDWIN M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

DESCRIPTIONS.—BOOTH is Five Feet 7 or 8 inches high, slender build, high forehead, black hair, black eyes, and wore a heavy black moustache, which there is some reason to believe has been shaved off.

JOHN H. SURRET is about 5 feet, 9 inches. Hair rather thin and dark; eyes rather light, no beard. Would weigh 145 or 150 pounds. Complexion rather pale and clear, with color in his cheeks. Wore light clothes of fine quality. Shoulders square; cheek bones rather prominent; chin narrow, ears projecting at the top; forehead rather low and square, but broad. Parts his hair on the right side; neck rather long. His lips are firmly set. A slim man.

DAVID C. HAROLD is five feet six inches high, hair dark, eyes dark, eyebrows rather heavy, full face, nose short, hand short and fleshy, feet small, instep high, round bodied, naturally quick and active, slightly closes his eyes when looking at a person.

NOTICE.—In addition to the above, State and other authorities have offered rewards amounting to almost one hundred thousand dollars, making an aggregate of about TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS.

- 201 BYLES, Rev. Mather. Autograph MS. Records of the New South Church, (Hollis St.), from the commencement, Nov. 14, 1732 to March 1, 1789. Giving the births, marriages and deaths during those periods, together with the proceedings and meetings of the Society. 2 manuscript volumes of 122 pages, 78 of which are in the handwriting of Rev. Mather Byles, the last date of his entry being Nov. 19, 1775. Sold as a lot.

"Aug. 9, 1776, this church having been for some time driven (by the cruel hand of Brittain) from their habitations and their house of worship been turned into a Barrack, by their Enemies — have now, by the great Goodness of God, an opportunity to visit their habitations."

On Aug. 19, 1776, the Society dismissed Rev. Mather Byles, being a loyalist, and called the Rev. Ebenezer Wight, who continues the records, until Sept. 7, 1788, when he resigned the office of rector. Exceedingly interesting, especially during the period of the Revolution and the trial of Dr. Byles.

Gentlemen,

Castle Island 5. Novem^r. 1777

The Return I made to your Hon^d Board of the Carolina Negroes, who are the Objects of the Resolue of the Assembly with respect to Cloathing, was short of one Man, he being at work at Dorchester did not at that time fall under my Observation but is entitled to the Advantage of the Resolue. As I have Rec'd a Message from you that the Cloathing is now ready, Has the poor Fellows are suffering for want of the Cloathing, I am to Request the Lab^r you will be pleased to deliver the Cloathing to Mr. Salisbury whom I have sent up for the purpose, & I will myself see that the Cloathing is properly delivered & will then Lodge a Receipt with your Board in such manner as you shall judge best.

I am with much Respect,
Yours very hum^d Servt

We are much in want of a Bell,
the old one being
destroyed by the Britis^b,
I wish your Honors could furnish one

Dear Miss Belham,

As you desired, I paid to Small & C^o

£21.18.11, and send you their acknowledgement, together with my receipt for £27 which I hope I have worded to your satisfaction. I saw Matilda on Monday, she was well, and cheerful. My sister keeps very bad, but I save up your letter to please her when she recovers. A gentleman wants to frank this, so excuse my hurying to thank you for your punctuality, tho' it seems a robbery almost to take it. Hoping to see you one day in London, & well. God bless you. Small & Co (who, you see, live in ^{the} old Jewry) have no Russian connections, but recommend transmitting thos' ^{I know none, but can engage} some Russian House. In haste Yours most truly.

C Lamb

- 1004 POE, Edgar Allan, Poet and author, a. l. s. (signed "Poe"), 2 pages 4° and address, "New York, Sept. 8, 1844," to F. W. Thomas. A personal letter, speaking with great bitterness of Thos. Dunn English, and of Robert Tyler.
 "I have left Philadelphia, and am living, at present, about five miles out of New York. For the last seven or eight months I have been playing hermit in earnest — nor have I seen a living soul out of my family — who are well, and desire to be kindly remembered. . . .
 "You said to me, hurriedly, when we last met on the wharf in Philadelphia, that you believed Robert Tyler really wished to give me the post in the Custom House. This I also really think! and I am confirmed in the opinion, that he could not, at all times, do as he wished in such matters, by seeing Dunn English at the head of the "Aurora" — a bullet-headed and malicious villain who has brought more odium upon the Administration than any fellow (of equal littleness) in its ranks — and who has been more indefatigably busy in both open and secret villification of Robert Tyler, than any individual, little or big, in America."

- 1005 POEANA.—Whitman, Sarah Helen, original MS. of Poem, “The Lost Church,” from the German of Uhland. Signed in full “Mrs. Sarah Helen Whitman.” Eight 8-line stanzas, 2 pp. folio.

“In yonder dim and pathless wood
 Strange sounds are heard at twilight hour,
 And peals of solemn music swell,
 As from some Minster’s lofty tower.
 From age to age those sounds are heard,
 Borne on the breeze at twilight hour,
 From age to age no foot hath found
 A pathway to the Minster’s Tower.”

- 1006 POEANA.—Poe, Neilson, a. l. s. “Baltimore, Nov. 1, 1849,” to Dr. Griswold, with address and postmark.

Neilson Poe was the Poet’s cousin and the “Mr. Poe of Baltimore,” who is referred to by Rosalie Poe. The letter is an interesting one as the following extracts will show:

“The history of the last few days of his life is known to no one so well as to myself, and is of touching and melancholy interest as well of the most admonitory import. I think I can demonstrate that he passed by a single indulgence from a condition of perfect sobriety to one bordering upon the madness usually occasioned by long continued intoxication. . . . I have opened his trunk and find it to contain very few manuscripts of value. The chief of them is a lecture upon the poetic principle and some paragraphs prepared apparently for some literary journal. There are, however, a number of books his own works which are full of corrections by his own hand. These ought undoubtedly to be placed in your hands.”

- 1007 POEANA. Power of Attorney signed by Maria Clemm, Poe’s mother-in-law, “Oct. 15, 1849,” one week after Poe’s death. Extremely interesting piece in perfect state.

“Whereas I, the undersigned Maria Clemm, am the sole owner and lawful possessor of the writings and literary remains of the late Edgar A. Poe. . . . And whereas, it was the express wish and injunction of the author before his death that Dr. Rufus W. Griswold should compile and edit the same in case of their publication . . . I have placed said writings in the hands of the said Dr. Rufus W. Griswold.”

" . . . I look at it alas! through glasses — not liquid glasses, or the medium of spirits, but dandy gold fellows, which however jauntily they may dangle in ribbon and glitter in spring, are but spectacles in disguise. The old gentlemen with his property-scythe and hour-glass will not be denied his marks, as he passes, upon feature, form, and faculty; but Heaven willing, it is my intention always to keep a corner of my heart young. . . . We all rode to Mt. Auburn on Wednesday to bury poor Tom Comer, who died so suddenly, that he was about on Tuesday and dead on Sunday. . . ."

 "The Humble & Sincere Declaration of us, Subscribers, Inhabitants of Ipswich, on ye Behalf of our Neighbors Jno. Proctor & his wife now in trouble & under Suspition of Witchcraft."

The deposition of Mary Daniel aged nineteen years or there abouts doth DepONENT testifieth of upon the 2^d day of the last week last past, towards night, I was suddenly taken very ill and went to lie down on a bed, soon after which there appeared to me the shape of some woman, who seemed to look and speak most fiercely & angrily, she beat, pinched & afflicted me very sorely telling me I shoul not have done so, or told such things to your selfes. I cannot positively say what shape it was that I saw at first, but next night after I was taken very ill again I a over felt a great prick ing in holes of my feet, and after a while I saw apparently the shape of widow Scott, who, as I was sitting in a chair by a fire pulled me with the chair down backward to her room, and tormented and pinched me very much, and I saw her go away at the door in which fit I was dumb and so continued till next morning finding a great load and burning upon my tongue. In some of y^e fits I had afterwards, I was stiffe and knew not if I saw who it was that afflicted me. In one fit (upon y^e beginning of it) I thought I saw good Jackson and widow Scott both walking into the chamber with 2 doves one of them came & sat upon me, so y^e could not stir. Good Jackson I saw no more, but know y^e she did me any harm. In another fit I saw ^{the person of} widow Scott in y^e room, who afflicted me, and being speechless, I continued so, until y^e went to y^e widow Scott, who taking me by y^e hand, I had liberty of speech again as formerly. The last fit I had was upon the last Sabbath day, in which I saw y^e shapes of four women or five, of whom widow Scott was one, & none I knew not, nor knew if any did hurt me, unless to widow Scott.
